Once ducks and geese swarmed Buffalo Lake by the hundreds of thousands. This picture was taken in the spring of 1963. The water became too polluted to sustain fish life about three years ago.

Lake Is Drained

Ducks, Fish Gone From Buffalo

BY NELL WILLIAMS
The ducks are gone from the dry lakebed of Buffalo Lake Wildlife Refuge.

Even before the residue was drained from the lake by Paul Ferguson, manager of the refuge, and his assistant, Milton Suthers, the water had been too dirty and too low to attract waterfowl.

"If you did shoot one, his feathers were all muddy," said Clarence Beckman of Umbarger, recalling the fall hunting season.

Beckman said that the birds still in the area are now seeking out small ponds of water created by irrigation run-off. Most of them are going north to breeding grounds, he said.

The retired county commissioner regrets the lack of birds on the lake, which has provided him with good hunting for geese and ducks in the past.

Other farmers, like Joe Wieck, who also farms close to the lake, say they are relieved to have the waterfowl away from their fields. "They haven't bothered this year, but other years, they've been an absolute nuisance," said Wieck. "In bad weather, after the feed is cut, they get in the fields and mess them up, and the cattle won't eat the grain and feed that's left. . . Those old web-footed feet will tromp it (the land) up and make it blow. I love to hunt them and love to see them, but I'd rather see them in someone else's field."

Beckman said that his operation is mainly grassland, and that ducks and geese don't bother it. Some farmers complain of the birds eating grain, he said, but thinks that only waste grain is consumed now, because farmers use combines. When wheat was put in shocks, he said that birds did sometimes eat it after harvest.

One object of the draining was to rid the lake of carp, but Suthers said that screening the water as it drained from the lake produced no fish at all.

The assistant manager said that the lake bed had become badly polluted over the years, and that the water was a green, soupy mess, so low in oxygen it wouldn't sustain fish life.

The fish have been gone for about three years, since they were poisoned in the spring of 1968, according to Mrs. Snooke Lindemann. Mr. and Mrs. Lindemann owned the Fisherman's Supply at Umbarger and the absence of fish "put us completely out of business," she said. They opened for picnickers the first summer, but have been completely closed since.

The Lindemanns now run Chaparral Villa, a trailer park in Canyon.

The purpose of the poisoning was to kill carp in the lake, Lindemann said.

"If it rains good, Buffalo Lake will be in good shape for three or four years," he said, adding that, since the lake was dry, it would be possible to tell where pollution was coming from when new water began filling the lake. He said that many people blame drainage from the feed lots, but he thinks that sewer lines which drain into run-off areas are also responsible for the problem.

Except for fisheries and migratory waterfowl management, Suthers said that work at the refuge would continue just as before. The staff maintains a large area for camping and picnicking and is responsible for about 4300 acres of grassland. "We cater to any wildlife oriented recreation," said Suthers.

City Incumbents Are Re-Elected

FELIX PIERCE

DR. WILLIS HARRISON

Some 69 voters returned Felix Pierce and Dr. Willis Harrison to the Canyon City Commission Tuesday.

The two incumbents were unchallenged in their bids for the commission. Pierce will fill place 4 and Harrison will fill place 5. No write-in ballots were cast.

Harrison is a 1961 graduate of West Texas State University and a 1965 graduate of the University of Texas School of Dentistry. He was a captain in the Army and after serving two years returned to Canyon in 1968 to open private practice.

He is on the board of stewards and treasurer of the Canyon First United Methodist Church and has served as vice president of the Chamber of Commerce and vice president of the Lions Club.

The dentist and his wife have three children, Monte, Julie and Ward.

Pierce was born 18 miles northwest of Canyon and attended Canyon schools. After graduation from high school, he attended West Texas State University and then entered the business world. He retired last year after 36 years with Mobil Oil Corp. Pierce, who is completing his second term as a commissioner, and his wife Tommie have one daughter, Mrs. Alice Kenmore of Phoenix, Ariz., and three grandchildren.

Harrison completed the term of office vacated when Kenneth Olsen was forced to resign because of state regulations not allowing teachers of a state university to serve on a city board.

Swearing in ceremonies will be held sometime during the week of April 12.

Farmers Present Plans

Scant Relief Yet In Sight

Little additional relief can be expected for drought-stricken farmers of Randall County and the Panhandle a group of farmers and businessmen were told here Monday night.

The meeting was called by Bob Lindsey to seek means of easing the stress brought on by prolonged dry weather.

Last year was the driest year in the 90 years of weather record keeping in the Panhandle, according to a report by County Agent John Brazzil to Randall County commissioners court.

Lindsey said he did not want to see Randall declared a drought disaster area although the rainfall over the county last year ranged from 9 inches downward to less than 4 inches in some areas.

Representatives of the ASCS, the Soil Conservation Service and the Farm Home Administration told the group that the federal government is doing about all for county farmers that it can do under present legislation and funding.

Ken Kendrick of Canyon First National Bank said there is a market for fat cattle and feeders and these can be turned for money.

Lindsey said he is concerned about basic herds and resuming of production when rains come.

Kendrick told the group that the administration is consumer minded and since the farmer represents such a small segment of the voting population he will not have an ear in Congress.

He warned that there already is talk of phasing out the farm program completely.

"Business is against farmers receiving a subsidy and you'll find this is true across the nation," Kendrick said. He said declaring the county a disaster area could do more harm than good.

The Canyon banker added that not only are county farmers in a bind because of the drought but also are victims of a continuing tightening of the economy in general.

The group of some 30 present agreed to send a five-point recommendation to legislators in Washington and if the drought persists for 30 days renew the recommendations.

Recommendations include:

1. A request that qualifications for a Farm Home Administration loan be reduced.

2. That methods be

Grade School Attendance Lines Change

The boundary lines separating Rex Reeves and Gene Howe Elementary Schools attendance areas have been redrawn for the school year 1971-72.

The new line runs west to east along a road 1 mile south of Hollywood Road to the Canyon Expressway. It runs south and east to include Siesta Trailer Park, Mescalero Park, the Palisades and Tanglewood in the Gene Howe attendance district.

Rex Reeves lines will include Rockwell Acres, Back Acres, Sherman Acres and Buffalo Plateau.

Oscar Hinger, Rex Reeves principal, said this week some 120 youngsters now attending Rex Reeves will attend Gene Howe next year.

Parents with questions concerning the redistricting should contact either principal at the schools.

Christian Interview Is Monday

State Representative Tom Christian of Claude will be the guest representative on "Hot Line to Austin" Monday over KVII-TV.

The Channel 7 broadcast will be at 7:30 p.m.

Guest newsmen will be Troy Martin, publisher and editor of The Canyon News; G. W. Estlack, publisher of the Donley County Leader; and Cecil Waggoner, publisher of the Claude News.

Sunrise Services Sunday

Sunrise in Palo Duro Canyon will mark the beginning of Easter worship services Sunday with devotions to begin in the amphitheatre at 6:15 a.m.

The Rev. Ivan Adams, pastor of First Christian Church, will deliver a sermon titled "It Began to Dawn."

Offertory music will be (see SUNRISE, page 9)

Speech Topic

Local Economy

"Future Economic Development for Canyon" will be the program topic at a salad supper meeting of the Women's Division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce April 13.

Larry S. Milner and Elvin J. Schofield, both of the Industrial Development Department of Southwestern Public Service will be guest speakers for the dinner meeting at 7 p.m. in the Canyon Community Center.

Milner is manager of the department at Southwestern Public Service. He is a graduate of the University of Texas where he majored in government and minored in economics.

Drive Against VD Sought By Doctor

Venereal disease is on the increase in Randall and Potter counties according to Bi-County Health Officer Dr. G. Mason Kahn.

Dr. Kahn, in an interview this week, said about a dozen more cases of gonorrhea have been reported thus far this year over the same period in 1970.

Figures for the last two years show a steady increase in both gonorrhea and infectious syphilis. In 1969, 540 cases of gonorrhea were reported to the Bi-County Health Department, and 30 cases of infectious syphilis were reported. The figures jumped to 740 gonorrhea cases in 1970 and 54 infectious syphilis cases.

Dr. Kahn pointed out before a true figure can be determined the reported numbers should be multiplied by between four and ten.

"We do not know of most of the cases," Dr. Kahn said. "And every case has about 3 1/2 contacts."

He explained that 50 percent of venereal disease cases are in persons 14 to 24 years of age.

"We need a drive against venereal diseases," Dr.

Kahn urged. "We could eradicate it if we could find the cases."

He also noted that venereal diseases are found in all social and economical strata. "Some people believe that VD is confined to the poor; this is just not so."

Dr. J. E. Low, city health officer of Canyon, and Dr. Dudley Moore, Randall County health officer, both agreed that they see relatively few cases of either gonorrhea and infectious syphilis.

"But one case is a problem," Dr. Moore pointed out.

"I do not think we have a big problem here," Dr. Moore continued. "But that is my own opinion of the local area."

Dr. Low said the problem in Canyon is probably not (see DRIVE, page 12)

Rickwartz Charged In Accident

Keith Leon Rickwartz, 18, and a WTSU freshman, has been charged with negligent homicide in Randall County Court by assistant district attorney Dick Dambold.

Rickwartz was charged with the misdemeanor in connection with the death Saturday morning of Paula Read of Canyon, also a WT freshman.

Miss Read, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Read, died as a result of injuries she suffered March 28 in a two-car accident one mile north of Umbarger at Farm to Market Road 1062 and an unnumbered county road.

Rickwartz was driver of a car travelling north on the county road. He was alone in his vehicle. He received a ticket for failure to yield right-of-way at a stop sign. His car was in collision with a car driven by Mark V. Miller of Tulia. Miller remains in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo in critical condition. Miller's wife, Mary Lou, was injured in

3 New Trustees Express Gratitude

The three newly elected school board members expressed gratitude to Canyon area voters for their support in Saturday's election which unseated three incumbents, in a record turnout.

Ed Wieck, Roscoe Richardson and Tom Keeling won the top three positions against a field of eight contestants.

Incumbents Wesley Cox, Joe Gill and Jerry LaGrone were defeated in their fourth bid for office. Each had served three three-year terms on the Canyon Independent School Board.

Wieck led the victory with 562 votes cast in his favor. Richardson polled 358 votes, and Keeling was third with 347 votes. A total of 829 ballots were cast Saturday.

Richardson said he is eager to view the overall school program as a board member, and appreciated all the votes he received.

Wieck said he was "overwhelmed" with the results. "This gives me a lot of confidence going into the school board job," he explained.

"I believe we should all express our appreciation to the three incumbents who have worked so many countless hours in community service," Wieck praised this week.

"There has got to be something wrong with a system that allows dedicated men to put in a lot of time and money in thankless jobs like these and then make them suffer defeat to get out. Maybe it's time to put a limit on successive years of service and it certainly would help if more people would offer to

Christy, age 2, is making friends with the Easter bunny. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lee of Happy will be one of many looking for eggs at the Sunday Easter egg hunt. Over 1000 eggs will be hidden in Corner Park for three age groups and children will begin to hunt at 2 p.m. The VFW will sponsor the hunt. Omer "Yank" Mainville is the Commander of the Local Post, 5681.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Just before the election we interviewed all the school board candidates. They insisted that there were no issues.

But there must have been. From what I can gather the foremost issue was whether Canyon School System needs an athletic director. This seems to have been the question on which the election turned.

Ed Wieck polled more votes than any candidate in recent years. It was natural for Ed to get most of the Um-barger vote because the people out there feel entitled to representation on the board since their children come to Canyon to school.

Obviously they weren't the only ones who felt that way. I understand that the total voting strength at Um-barger is about 200. Subtract that number from Wieck's total of 562 and he would still have had enough to put him on the board by a comfortable margin.

Also some voters seem to have felt that the new junior high school should have been constructed differently.

A board member's statement at a board meeting that maybe teachers could be hired a little cheaper now that teachers are in plentiful supply also is credited with having brought some wrath down on the incumbents.

There are a lot of teachers in Canyon and I know for a fact that the statement raised a furor.

Ironically, the board member who made the statement was not running for re-election this year.

Personally, I think the school board has done a good job over the past decade. I have sat in on most of their meetings and have agonized with them over some of their problems. I have become very close to these men.

I think that I will become just as close to these who are coming onto the board. They are dedicated people or they wouldn't have asked for the opportunity to serve their community on the school board.

Lieutenant William Calley, Jr., is merely the symbol of our agony in Vietnam. He is the microcosm of a nation's frustration over the loss of 50,000 lives and millions in treasure in a guerrilla war we will not win.

He is the crisis — the turning point in our foreign policy.

Never again will the American people permit their President to commit their young men to a protracted, undeclared war.

There is talk of renewing the rivalry between West Texas State and Texas Tech.

I hope it develops into more than talk. It would be a good money game and something Buff and Raider fans would look forward to every season.

When Randall County hired a road superintendent I was all for it because I thought it would bring the county more efficiency and save the taxpayers some money.

I don't think this has been accomplished yet.

The road superintendent draws $700 a month. His job is to oversee the roads and maintenance of equipment, chores that had been performed by individual commissioners.

While they were superintending road work and equipment maintenance the commissioners drew $100 a month expense money. I could understand this. I'm sure they spent that much looking after county business.

They drew $440 a month salary. I never felt that they were overpaid.

But we have a road superintendent now and theoretically much of the responsibility and expense has been lifted from the individual commissioner.

Randall County commissioners are still drawing $100 a month expense money and $440 a month salary in spite of the reduced expense and responsibility.

The salaries of our commissioners are far below those in some other counties. In Gray County commissioners draw $8,300 a year.

If Randall County commissioners think they should have a $100 a month raise this column would support them.

But as it stands the commissioners are drawing $100 a month expense money, the same they drew before a road superintendent was hired.

Normally the county pays 10 cents a mile for car expense. I think that since we do have a road superintendent it is not too much to ask that commissioners keep account of actual miles they drive their cars on the county's behalf and be paid 10 cents a mile just like other county employees.

Commissioners court had another stormy executive session — public and press barred — Monday at which road personnel was discussed again.

This is the second time Road Superintendent Bob Burns has been before the court with personnel problems.

I certainly think that, now that he is on the job, Mr. Burns should be given an adequate chance to prove himself. I have always been skeptical of the county trying to hire a road superintendent for $700 a month.

If Mr. Burns can do the job, direct road personnel and keep the rural roads in shape, I think he is worth considerably more than we are paying him.

If he can't, we can't afford him at any wage.

I think the county can lose dollars trying to save pennies on this very important position.

John L. Hasse of Pampa signs a petition seeking clemency for Lt. William L. Calley. Sharon Phillips of Aspermont, mans the table. Residents of McCaslin Hall, under the leadership of Carol Rutherford of Bristol, Va., collected between 600 and 800 signatures Thursday and Friday.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

The foremost argument advanced by advocates of liberal abortion laws is overpopulation. If there are too many people in America, why not eliminate the nation's enemies — beginning with the more than 500 convicted murderers idling on death row — instead of innocent, unborn babies?

Probably the average person approves of therapeutic abortion as he does any other surgery essential to health and welfare. And certainly any woman has the right to decide whether or not she will bear a child. But should she not make that decision before conception?

Does the mother of an infant have the right to take its life if she decides she does not want it?

Victims of rape and incest usually need therapeutic abortions. However, if this were mandatory, the world might be deprived of some rare jewels. Ethel Waters is a living monument to the fact that God can bring good out of evil — even rape.

If life space is available on a priority basis only, and those with the lowest priorities must die, should innocent babies not rate higher than incorrigible criminals?

But "abortions are not babies."

Aren't they?

As of Jan. 1, 1971, at least 23 babies had been reported aborted alive in New York alone since the approval of that state's liberal abortion law. One little girl was thriving at 4 months, and was available for adoption.

Is it consistent for a civilized nation to condone this kind of killing but refuse to carry out the execution of mass murderers? Is it fair to grant the precious gift of life to men who deliberately and cruelly take it from others, and refuse it to innocent babies? (It is about as consistent as it is to train soldiers to kill our enemies, and then court martial them for doing it.)

Of course, if the mother refuses to protect her unborn child, the most punitive law on earth cannot do so. And it is doubtful if any woman ever resorted to an abortion because she was concerned about overpopulation.

If capital punishment for capital crimes can be designated as "murder-a-la-civilization," what about this 20th century brand of infanticide?

The death rate for mothers may be lowered by legalizing abortion, but the psychological damage will likely increase in proportion to the abortions.

crease in proportion to the abortions.

Is it not an indictment of our civilized, scientific age that such barbaric methods must be employed to control births?

An old country doctor had a ready answer for any woman who consulted him about an illegal abortion. He always assured her he would be delighted to oblige her. When she asked about arrangements, he blithely replied, "You just bring him up here anytime after he's 2 weeks old, and I'll take a hammer and knock him in the head."

The wise doctor said that the expectant mother's horrified reaction to his brutal statement was usually sufficient to shock her into protecting her unborn child. And he reported some of his most grateful patients were among the mothers who had been most bitter about his "callous disregard for their welfare."

But the good doctor knew what the distraught women did not: Babies usually bring their welcome with them.

Our Creator has promised to bless and protect us if we obey His laws, and destroy us if we do not (Deut. 30:15-16). And He is not silent concerning murder (Gen. 9:6) of abortion (Ex. 21:22-23). God called the fetus "life," and granted it the same protection as a man; dare we do otherwise?

WT Sports Briefs

Boeka Leads Buffs' Golf

Freshman Jerry Boeka of Amarillo led the West Texas State golf team during the Oklahoma Baptist Tournament at Shawnee this past weekend.

The lanky Boeka carded rounds of 74, 80 and 75 for a 229 total. Mike Wells, Plainview freshman, had rounds of 76, 74 and 83 for a 233 score. Borger junior Ronnie Moxom was next with a 238 score, while Jim Lewis shot 242 and Bunky Preston 247.

Coach Vern Farquhar and his players will take a break from action until April 22-23 when they play in the Hardin-Simmons Tournament at Abilene. They ended their season May 7-8 at the Missouri Valley Conference meet in Wichita, Kan.

Merced Solis Signs With WT

Merced Solis, a standout football player from Mission, has signed an athletic scholarship agreement with West Texas State University.

The 6-3, 200-pounder was signed by WTSU assistant Leldon Hensley. Solis was named to the all-district 28-AAAA team last fall as a defensive back. He was a running back and tight end on offense.

Solis was a three-year starter in both football and basketball. He was the district scoring leader in basketball this past season, scoring 27.9 points per game.

Children of the Town and Country Kindergarten made an Easter Pilgrimage to the various Churches in Canyon last week. Mrs. C. Petruccione is the owner of the school. Those assisting with the transportation were Mrs. Emerson Haraden, Mrs. Al Schram, and Mrs. Donald Lloyd, and Mrs. Dick Thompson.

Chamber Gains New Members

David West reported to the board of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce Monday evening that the recent drive had netted 18 new individual members and 14 new member-firms, which will increase the Chamber's income by $1,268 for the year.

A membership drive directed at the faculties of West Texas State University and the public school system will begin with personal letters to be mailed this week to 516 teachers and administrators.

Chamber Manager Roland Black recommended, in view of the success of the maxi-garage sale organized recently by the Women's Division, that two more are to be planned before Christmas. He suggested that one could be planned for July and one for late October.

Members made plans to send representatives to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce's annual convention in Amarillo April 15-17.

The board recommended that businesses close on the following holidays: Memorial Day, May 31; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, Sept. 6; Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25; Christmas, Dec. 25; and New Year's Day, Jan. 1, 1972.

Tennis Tourney In Oklahoma City

West Texas State University and the University of Oklahoma have cancelled their tennis match, slated for Wednesday afternoon at Norman, Okla.

The match was cancelled when it was discovered that the two teams meet the following day in the opening round of the Oklahoma City University Team Tournament.

The Buffaloes of coach David Kent face Oklahoma at 2:30 p.m. Thursday. The winner of that match will face the winner of the Southern Illinois-Kansas battle Friday. Southern Illinois, the defending champ, is top-seeded in the tournament and was ranked 12th nationally in a pre-season poll.

Host Oklahoma City University, seeded number two in the tourney, plays Missouri Thursday and Middle Tennessee meets North Texas State.

The Buffaloes will carry a 15-2 record into the tournament. The only losses have been to nationally-ranked Pan American and Rice. West Texas scored one of its better wins of the season Thursday in Lubbock with an 8-1 win over Texas A&M.

Track Team Readies For Meet

West Texas State's track team warms up for its own invitational by competing Saturday in the New Mexico State Invitational at Las Cruces, N.M.

The majority of the Buffalo team took last weekend off from competition and three members were entered in the Texas Relays. Hurdler Randy Thomas ran a 14.9 in the 120-yard high hurdles and failed to qualify for the finals.

Girls Take Tech In Meet

West Texas State University women's track team swept past Texas Tech Saturday to win 10 of 14 events totaling 228 points over Tech's 181.

Gerrie Brockman, first year track woman, placed first in the 440 yard run and the 220 yard run. Jo Meaker, who placed seventh in the broad jump in the national track meet last year, won first in the 100 meter hurdles, and in the long jump.

The district meet will be at Lubbock April 17. First, second and third place winners at the district meet will participate in the state meet April 30 in Denton.

Country Jamboree Scheduled Friday

A Country Jamboree will be held Friday from 8 to 12 p.m. at the Junior Livestock Building.

Musicians from all over the area are scheduled to attend the event and the public is invited.

No admission will be charged but donations to Girlstown will be accepted.

NEWS BRIEF

The WTSU chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management is sponsoring an Easter egg hunt Saturday at 2 p.m. in Amarillo's Thompson Park for children in Big Brothers, the Maverick Club, the Amarillo Day Nursery, and the Opportunity Club.

Schools Prepare For Windstorms

BY NELL WILLIAMS
Spring means tornado-time on the Great Plains and Canyon schools are preparing plans of action, hoping they won't be needed.

Students at Rex Reeves Elementary School held a tornado drill Thursday afternoon. Because there is not a really safe place in the school, officials hope that parents will be able to come and get their children, coming to the front doors, where they can be directed to the proper areas.

Until parents come, the 1040 students will be assigned to the areas considered safest — away from glass and pipes and next to inside walls.

Other schools in the Canyon system expect to have drills shortly after the Easter holiday.

At Gene Howe School, Principal Luther Lawless said that the problem is not complicated by glass because the facility is air-conditioned throughout and there are no classrooms with windows. They do ask parents to pick up their children if there is enough advance notice of windstorms. Each child must be released to a parent or guardian, Lawless said.

Dave Corley, principal of Canyon Junior High School, plans to publish a "tornado route" indicating areas of safety to the students. These will be hallways, next to permanent walls, for the most part. "We would like to get them away from school, but think it's more dangerous having them run loose in the building," said Corley, so classes will be kept together.

Junior high officials don't have to worry so much about flying glass, because the building has no windows, Corley said, but he would want to get students away from the building's movable partitions. If enough advance notice of bad weather were given, Corley said that parents would be asked to come for their children.

High school students would be sent to a tunnel which leads from the main classroom building to the boiler room and to the boiler room itself, said Principal John Sommer.

Heads down is the cry during a tornado alert drill at Rex Reeves and Gene Howe elementary schools. Students ran through a practice drill this week at Rex Reeves and listened to directions from teachers and administrators as they explained procedures if an alert is sounded in Canyon.

Dairy Cows Test High On Milk Production

Milk production levels on several Randall County dairy cows have been found to be from two to two-and-a-half times the estimated annual output of the average milk cow in the United States. Testing was done by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America. The animals are registered Holsteins.

Hales Naches June 6827025, a three-year-old in the herd tested for Jones Hales produced 18,950 lbs. of milk and 692 lbs. of butterfat in 316 days.

Palo Duro Noel Lad Ruby 6274781, a four-year-old, produced 20,410 lbs. of milk and 811 lbs. of butterfat in 305 days. Palo Duro Della Ivanhoe Walker 6513652, a four-year-old, had 20,000 lbs. of milk and 773 lbs. of butterfat in 344 days. El-Jul Creation Janet 6735255, a three-year-old, had 19,060 lbs. of milk and 753 lbs. of butterfat in 347 days. Palo Duro Starlight R Artis 6274777, a four-year-old, had 19,180 lbs. of milk and 738 lbs. of butterfat in 318 days. Palo Duro Var Lass Dolly 6873339, a two-year-old, had 15,280 lbs. of milk and 611 lbs. of butterfat in 305 days. All these are included in the herd tested for Louis G. Hinders.

These new production figures may be compared to the estimated annual output of 8,821 lbs. (4,103 quarts) of milk and 325 lbs. of butterfat by the average U.S. dairy cow, notes the National Holstein Association.

Production testing is made available through the cooperative efforts of the state and local testing associations and Holstein-Friesian Association of America. Dairymen enrolled in the program pay for the service.

CHS Golf Team Wins District North Half

Canyon High School golf team is winner of the north half of District 1-AAA after the final round among Dumas, Perryton and CHS.

Canyon boys totaled 990 points to take the title, and face the winner of the Muleshoe, Tulia and Levelland round April 17 on neutral ground. Perryton B had 1005 total points and Perryton A scored 1019. Dumas was last with 1074.

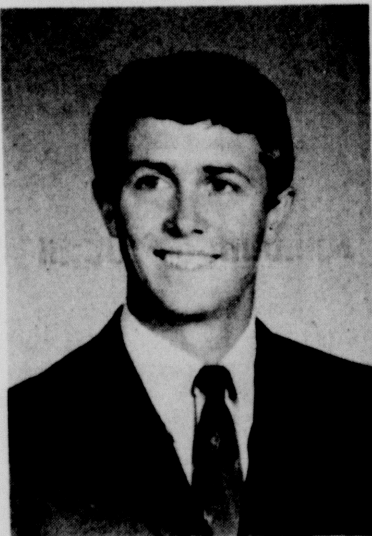

L. H. Brotherton, coach, noted that a B team is not eligible for district championship, but he felt Perryton has great depth to field two teams to equal in strength.

Randall Burton of Canyon was medalist with a total score of 230 points. Joe Ziegler, also of Canyon, totaled 248 for first runner-up. Ziegler tied with Ray McPherson and Gail Mayfield, both of Perryton, for the second spot, but won in a sudden death play-off when he shot a four par on the first hole ahead of bogey fives for the other two.

Perryton B team led Saturday's tournament with 330 points, and Perryton A finished second with 331. Canyon had 333, and Dumas A had 352 followed by Dumas B with 404.

Burton was named medalist for the Saturday conflict with 76, and Gail Mayfield was second with 77.

Brotherton said location of the district playoff April 17 will be announced when winner of the south half of the district is determined.

While in the Panhandle Mrs. Tower will tour Tulsa, Plainview, Littlefield, Dimmitt, Hereford, Panhandle, Pampa, Perryton, Borger, Dumas, and Amarillo.

Mrs. Tower is the former Lou Bullington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Bullington of Wichita Falls. Senator and Mrs. Tower met in Wichita Falls when the Senator's father, the late Dr. Joe Z. Tower, was pastor of the First Methodist Church and Miss Bullington served as substitute church organist. The couple's friendship developed when he joined the history and government faculty at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls in 1951, where she was a teacher of organ.

The Tower family, including three daughters, Penny, 16, Marian, 15, and Jeanne, 14, maintain their home in Wichita Falls. While in Washington they live in the Northwest section of the city. All three girls currently attend The Hockaday School in Dallas.

Mrs. Tower is active in the International Club, composed of wives of foreign diplomats and members of Congress, is chairman of the Capitol Hill Ladies luncheon group, and is program chairman of the Congressional Club, composed of wives and daughters of members and former members of Congress.

She is active in the Senate Ladies Red Cross organization and is a member of Texas Delegation Wives, the Texas State Society, the Republican Congressional Wives Club, and the 87th Congress Club, composed of wives of congressmen and senators who came as freshmen legislators to the 87th Congress in 1961.

Senator and Mrs. Tower maintain a schedule of Washington social appearances, including embassy receptions and events specifically associated with the Senator's congressional responsibilities, interest, and their home state of Texas.

Mrs. Tower campaigned extensively in Texas during the Senator's 1966 campaign. She also traveled in behalf of Nixon-Agnew in 1968 and for George Bush in 1970.

Umberger News

BY SUSAN DOLLE

Has it ever rained on Easter Sunday? Not according to Tony Handing who has been keeping weather records for thirty years.

Mr. Handing says it never rains on Easter because Easter is the first Sunday after the spring full moon, but there is usually a frost on Holy Thursday.

Mr. Handing, who resides four miles north of Umberger, was asked by Mr. W. H. Upchurch, a former ASCS office manager, to keep rainfall records in his neighborhood along with several other county farmers in 1940. Since that time he has maintained accurate records of all precipitation. He uses an official weather bureau rain gauge. Since Handing's land borders near the Palo Duro Creek, rainfall is slightly heavier than in most other parts of the county.

The details of his records are amazing. He has recorded each day of moisture and has a running total for each month and each year. When asked why he has kept these records so faithfully through the years he replied, "It is my hobby." Mention any year and Handing can quote the month with the crucial rainfall or the rainfall total for that year. Besides the written record, that which is retained in his memory is phenomenal. The highest rainfall recording was in 1941 with 37.31 inches while the lowest record was in 1956 with 10.46. But in 1970 Handing showed 10.68. Contrary to the popular opinion about the dry thirties, he said the years 1952 through 1956 were the lowest years in precipitation.

"It is amazing how good a crop you can grow if the moisture comes at the right time," Handing said. Then he began to talk about a big snow storm of Dec. 8, 1943 and the rainfall of Jan., Feb., and March 1944 and the resulting big wheat crop that followed. He cited other examples of how the time of moisture is more important than the amount.

When asked when the drought was going to break he was reluctant to commit himself; however, he recalled that 1931, 1941, 1951 and 1961 were all wet. "If patterns mean anything, this should be a wet year. However, the late 1960s were pretty wet so maybe we are due a three or four year dry spell as occurred in the '30s and '50s," Handing said.

This is the week in which we pause and reflect about the ONE who suffered for all men. In an age when pain is feared and suffering is meaningless maybe these words penned by a Confederate soldier can be helpful. He wrote, From the vantage point of years: "I asked God for strength, that I might achieve. I was made weak, that I might learn humbly to obey. I asked for help that I might do greater things. I was given infirmity, that I might do better things. I asked for riches, that I might be happy. I was given poverty, that I might be wise. I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life. I was given life, that I might enjoy all things. I got nothing that I asked for, but everything I had hoped for. Despite myself my prayers were answered. I am among all men, mostly richly blessed!"

AAUW Hears Discussion Of Pollution Problems

Dr. Wallace Johnston, head of WTSU's Industrial Education Department, spoke on "Urban Pollution" to the Canyon branch of the American Association of University Women Saturday in the home of Mrs. Charles Harter.

During their business meeting, the women elected Mrs. John Green their new president. Other officers are Mrs. W. M. Stoker, first vice-president and Mrs. D. R. Park treasurer.

Mrs. Stoker and Mrs. Ernest Carlson reported on the association's state convention in Abilene Mar. 26-27.

The women discussed the making of decorations for the national convention in Dallas June 27-July 1, which will be attended by two delegates from the Canyon branch.

Dr. Johnston told the association that Canyon does not have the problems of larger cities, but the matter of pollution is so important everyone must be concerned.

He said that throwing things away is not free, for the cost of disposal is great. In the United States last year, said Dr. Johnston, our cities hauled away 360 million tons of trash, 30 million tons of paper, 4 million tons of plastic, 26 million bottles, 7 million television sets, 6 million cars, and vast quantities of miscellaneous items.

The speaker quoted Richmond Vaughn, director of the Public Health Office, as saying that our burden of solid waste is "resources out of place."

Much of what is thrown away could be salvaged, said Dr. Johnston. Water could be reclaimed; oil could be reprocessed. Paper could be recycled, and much metal could be salvaged and re-used. Glass can be ground, melted and re-cast.

Air pollution was also discussed by Dr. Johnston, who said that 5,000 people died in London in 1952 because of smog, that a New Yorker walking in the streets of his city takes in toxic materials equal to 38 cigarettes a day, that Los Angeles has 50 times the airborne lead of rural areas, and that Tokyo had 154 smog alerts in 1967.

Individuals must become aware of their responsibilities, said Dr. Johnston. Education will be challenged to produce new comprehensions about the world and man's place in it with the goal of creating an educated, action-oriented populace that is knowledgeable about technology and ecology.

Easter Sermons, Rituals Planned

Holy Week services will climax with Easter sermons in Canyon churches Sunday morning.

At Calvary Baptist Church, the Rev. H. D. Freeman will speak on "The Resurrection."

The choir's anthem at First Baptist Church will be "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," under the leadership of Hugh Sanders, minister of music. The Rev. Bill Foil will preach.

Mrs. Bill McKinney

Miss Cutbirth Weds Bill McKinney

Carol Cutbirth became the bride of Bill McKinney Saturday in a double ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Bill Foil officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lillian Cutbirth of Amarillo, and Mr. David Cutbirth of Odessa.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis McKinney of Borger.

At the front of the sanctuary was a large church Bible accented with large candelabras and emerald palms. Two white urns atop white columns held bouquets of gladiolus and blue majestic daisies. Twin candelabras with holy white tapers accented with emerald palms flanked the altar. A traditional kneeling bench and aisle runners were also used at the front of the sanctuary.

Mrs. John Poe of Snyder served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Cathy Gerald of Canyon, Cindy Ingram of Friona, and Mrs. Doug Chaveaux of Kress. All carried votive candles surrounded by blue and white daisies.

Barry Scott of Belle Chase, Louisiana was best man. Groomsmen were Donnie Paul McKinney of Borger, Edward Holwig of High-spire, Pennsylvania, and Daryl Wynn of Follett.

Candlelighters were Mrs. Bob Schellsted of Irving, Mrs. Joe Venneman of Spearman, Kaynetta Ward and Tammy Ward of Cadley. All carried nosegay clusters of blue and white tapers.

Mrs. Dick Dawdy, organist, accompanied by Dean Kelly, vocalist, supplied the music for the ceremony. Selections included "Theme from Romeo and Juliet", "Whither Thou Goest", and "The Lord's Prayer".

Ushers were John Notaro of Canyon and Randy Corneison of Borger.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length formal gown of peau de soie and alencon lace designed with a scoop neckline, empire waist, and long tapered sleeves. The semi A-line silhouette was enhanced at the back by a detachable chapel length Watteau train. Tiny seed pearls and sequins complemented the lace inserts.

A fingertip veil of imported illusion cascaded to fingertip length from a coil of seed pearls and crystal drops. A border of lace edged the veil, framing the bride's face.

The bride carried a white sweetheart orchid atop a white satin Bible, a gift from the groom. Surrounding the orchid and cascading from the bouquet were white stephanotis.

For travel the bride wore a blue dress and coat ensemble in double knit and wore white accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony in Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. Hugh Sanders, pianist, played music during the reception.

After a wedding trip to Monarch, Colorado the couple will be at home at 27126th Ave., Apt. 3.

The bride is a senior at West Texas State University majoring in speech and hearing therapy and elementary education. She has been a cheerleader for 4 years at WT and was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha and active in the Campus Crusade for Christ.

Designer Bonnets By Mrs. O'Keefe

BY CAROL CRAIN

Designing and making bonnets for Easter or Broadway shows takes a certain knack which Mrs. Penny O'Keefe has acquired.

Mrs. O'Keefe majored in fashion design at Vogue Design in Chicago.

The designer recently made all the hats for the hat shop in the WTSU musical "Hello Dolly".

Gay colors were used for the hats in the shop. Mrs. O'Keefe used an old hat for her base and designed around it.

"I used flowers, scraps of lace, ribbon and plums to decorate the hats," she stated.

"Net from old formals was used to build up the brims and make the hats look bigger," she continued.

"I had to use Christmas ribbon on one hat," she said, explaining that she needed a certain color and all she had in it was the paper ribbon.

"The women in that time period wore their hats tilted or toward the front," she pointed out saying that she worked toward that type of look for the hats in the hat shop.

For the stage hats she used pins, glue, thread, safety pins and even spray paint.

"While I was making those hats I had wall to wall trash in my house," she stated. The effort took about a week, off and on, to complete.

Other costumes and hats Mrs. O'Keefe has helped design for the Amarillo Little Theatre's Pajama Game and has worked with play at the High Plains Center for the Performing Arts.

She has also helped with the Branding Iron Theatre production of "Hamlet."

Gene Morrison, and Ron Matthews work on the massive table that will be used in the upcoming contest play, "Becket". Members of the cast have researched, and made by hand all of the furniture, props, and costumes from the Byzantine-Romanesque period in England.

Research, Hard Work Apparent In 'Becket'

BY CAROL CRAIN

If authenticity, hard work, and acting ability teamed with the selection of the classic play, "Becket" is the formula that will take a high school contest play to state, then Canyon High School will be there.

Weeks of planning and research have preceded the actual rehearsal periods. Director Sherry Dambold and other CHS teachers have plowed through dozens of books learning about the Byzantine-Romanesque period, which followed the Dark Ages.

The furniture, costumes, banners, and props for the show have all been thoroughly researched, museum pictures studied, and then items handmade by the drama classes.

The male cast members of the show have built from scratch the wooden thrones, chairs, table and stools for the production. The legs are ornate and rope decorated portions of the chairs. The CHS woodshop was used for the set construction.

The female cast members have designed the costumes, drawn original patterns, and made handsome apparel in rich, colorful brocades, corduroys, satins, and velvets. Teacher Sandra Kemmerling has been in charge of the costumes.

Goblets, belts, sword handles, and the church cross has been jeweled by the cast members.

One of the most interesting pieces of the set is an altar that reverses, with a scene change, to Becket's tomb. Decorative touches on the altar are made of papier mache. Even the music for the show will be authentic and was researched by the Royal Brantleys.

Julie Brantley, who will portray the part of Gwendolyn, has taken harp lessons especially for the part, which calls for her to sing and play the musical instrument.

Cast members for "Becket" include Bill Reynolds as King Henry the Second; Ronnie Williams as Thomas Becket; Gene Morrison as Gilbert Foliot, the Bishop of London; Bill Anderson as the Archbishop of Canterbury; James Boyce as the Bishop of Oxford; Connie Kelley as the Queen Mother; Karen Malzahn as Queen Eleanor; Julie Brantley as Gwendolyn; James Boyce, Bill Anderson, and Bobby Gregg as the barons; and Mike Rinehart as Louis, King of France.

"Becket" will be presented for public performance April 15 in the Canyon High School auditorium. Tickets are $1 for students and $1.25 for adults. "Under the Sycamore Tree" will also be presented at this time under the direction of Carroll Killingsworth.

"Becket" will go into district competition with six other schools Friday, April 16. The first place winner at district will go to regional, and the first place winner at regional will go to state.

WHAT IS TRUE SATISFACTION?

Today people look for satisfaction in nice positions, things, or personal relationships. But do these provide lasting satisfaction? Many are finding real peace, joy, and fulfillment in doing good — in expressing God's ever-present goodness.

You can hear more about how to find this lasting satisfaction in a coming free public lecture by Mrs. Catherine H. Anwander, a teacher and practitioner of Christian Science from Santiago, Chile.

Christian Science lecture
Monday, April 12, 1971
First Church of Christ, Scientist
Julian at Georgia
8:00 P.M.

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

Permit me, if you will, to pursue a serious vein of thought for a few minutes. As we reflect back over our lives upon the truly happy and rewarding experiences we have had, chances are — they were not anything we particularly did of our own volition, but rather a relationship that we shared with another person or other people. And, at this stage in my life I would be totally remiss if I did not publicly acknowledge my most recent venture in happiness and those who helped make it possible.

To mention a few — Troyce Mulherin, Doris Bufkin, Earnestine Harp, Betty Dozier, Jean Keith, Marilyn Meadows, Ruth Clark, Ocie Towery, Bev and Beverly Dampf, John and Patty Waters, Dick Flenniken, Frank Hanson, Raydelle Palmer, Willetta Johnson, and Day Taylor. It was delightful for me to have been a candidate for the Canyon School Board and a special debt of gratitude is sent the aforementioned friends who so graciously gave of their time and talents.

Also a special "thank you" to those of you who took time from your very busy lives to go and cast a vote for me. Just to say "thanks" seems rather inadequate, but will have to suffice.

And a hearty "Congratulations" to Ed Wieck, Roscoe Richardson, and Tom Keeling for a race well run.

I suppose it is of some significance that I placed fourth and even ahead of the incumbents, and perhaps this should be of some consolation. In any event, the Lord willing, I will toss the pretty hat in the ring next time and hopefully be among the victors. There are still many of us that feel the need, because of our geographical dislocation from Canyon proper, to have board representation. The running of a race is good experience and being fourth has some merit, but as our contemporary philosopher "Charlie Brown" says, "Winning may not be everything, but losing ain't nothin'".

Goings-on recently: Mrs. John "Betty" Dozier really does things up right. Kelly and Kevin each celebrated their tenth and ninth birthdays, respectively, and Mrs. D. had a birthday party on one day, with approximately 30 in attendance, for Kelly; and the next day, did a repeat performance with approximately 30 for Kevin. Understand she even made the cakes like ships with lifesaver candy for portholes. I'll bet she's glad the good Maker put birthdays a year apart, and a "Happy" to Kelly and Kevin on Gary Lane.

David Finke, son of the Fred Finkes, walked off with a first place at the recent Texas Panhandle Science Fair. David's project was Bees in the Zoology Division. Larry Young, son of the Dale Youngs, took home a second place in his math exhibit. Miss Kathy Atkins, daughter of the Mel Atkins, received a special award from the American Cancer Society for her smoking machine exhibit. This award was a $25.00 certificate. Congratulations to all of you and we know the Canyon School System can take pride in this calibre of students.

The Fred Finkes are having the pleasure of Fred's mother, Mrs. Hattie Finke from Pottsborrow, for a visit. A special "Hello" to her.

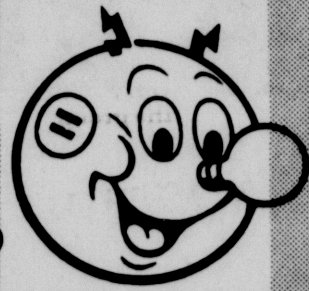

Back to Birthdays — Kyle Balke, son of the Dick Balkes on Gary Lane recently celebrated his tenth birthday with a party at the Amarillo Bowl. About 32 boys and girls attended. Monty Bell took the "high" prize and Kendra Wallis took "low" prize for the party. A "Happy" tenth to you, Kyle.

Speaking of birthdays — here comes one to Gail Lichte — although we don't know how old she was. But husband Hank gave a surprise party for Gail and invited the immediate neighbors.

Welcome home to Mrs. Jerry "Claire" McMennamy from recent stay in hospital.

Read the following: Any big men born around here?" a tourist asked in a condescending tone. "Nope," responded the native. "Beat we can do is babies. Different in the city, I suppose." pmh sought to help students having a difficult time going to school because of the drought.

3. That money be made available for control of wind erosion.
4. That assistance be given stockmen in maintaining basicherds.
5. Return to advance payments for participation in farm programs.
Lindsey said he also would notify state farm organization leaders about the recommendations.
Earlier Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the School of Agriculture at West Texas State University, said some cow-calf operators will be out of business in 60 days if it doesn't rain. He said some basic herds have already gone into the sale ring.

Dr. Smallwood also noted that he believes the drought has had an adverse effect on enrollment at the university.
Tom Cheshire of the Farm Home Administration said FHA loans have been available to qualifying farmers since September of last year. He said every county in the Panhandle is designated as eligible for these loans.
Don Lloyd of the ASCS said there is no program restriction on grazing any acreage with the exception of 4,800 Cropland Adjustment Program acreage.
"It is the only acreage left to turn loose," said Lloyd, "and it will be poor quality grazing."
Lloyd also said that if a feed program were available it would be for maintenance of basic herds and would be no more than three or four percent.

"I doubt that it would be worth the trouble," he declared.
Lloyd could not even bring his listeners hope for advance payments for participation in farm programs.
As for the proposals made by Lindsey and sanctioned by the group, these would require action by the Congress, he pointed out.
County Commissioner Jim Fletcher said it is not just cattlemen who are being hurt by the drought. He said many small farmers will be pushed completely out of business if the dry weather continues.

Archie Scott and George Stevens kick off the Evening Lions Club Light Bulb sale which will be in progress all of April. Scott is on the board of directors of the new club, and Stevens is president. Monies from the sale will be used for charity projects selected by the club. Two 60, 75 and 100 watt bulbs are in the package selling for $2.

Vandals Hit Signs, Lights

Randall County Sheriff deputies spent a busy night Saturday investigating acts of vandalism on Palo Duro highway 214.
Deputy Recil Johnson said that three boys knocked down barricades along construction work on the highway, drove to Canyon and then drove back out to the construction site and began knocking down more barricades.
At this point a construction employee fired at the car, not harming anyone, but putting a hole in the car truck, Johnson reported.
No charges were filed in the incident.
"I believe the boys learned their lesson, and I believe the company employee knows better than to fire at anyone again," Johnson said.
Some 30 blinking lights have been stolen from the construction site along the highway in addition to the barricades being damaged.
"There is a reason for those barricades and lights," Johnson noted. "And that is to save lives."
He continued saying charges can be filed for either destroying the barricades or taking the lights.
"We can file malicious mischief charges against them," he pointed out. "Or we can file on them for destruction of private property."
Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it—and so do its readers.

as bad as in metropolitan areas.
"You never know how big the problem is because people go to out-of-town doctors and are treated," Dr. Low explained.
But he did add doctors in Canyon see few cases of venereal diseases. "But one case is too many," he noted.
Drs. Kahn and Low stressed that persons who cannot afford to have tests run for venereal diseases can be checked at the bi-county health center in Amarillo.
And they both agreed that most cases can be treated and cured.
Dr. Kahn explained his office is trying to solve the growing venereal disease problem through education in the public schools.
"We talk with junior and senior high school students and just explain the diseases," Dr. Kahn said. "We use no visual aids, we just talk to them, explaining the facts."
He explained that junior high school boys and girls are segregated and the high school students are talked to in mixed groups.
"So far we have had favorable response from parents," he said. The educational talks in the public schools began this school year.
A law passed in 1969 allows any person regardless of age to commit to an examination for venereal disease by a physician.
"This means that children can come in for an examination without telling their parents," Dr. Kahn said. "We hope this will encourage students to be examined if they think they may have a venereal disease."
"We can generally cure it if we can just find the cases," he concluded.
